DEKALB COUNTY, INDIANA:

PRELIMINARY BIBLIOGRAPHY OF GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL REFERENCES

Compiled by

KAREN B. CAVANAUGH

Copyright 1983 by Karen B. Cavanaugh

INTRODUCTION

This bibliography has been compiled to assist those researching DeKalb County, Indiana. Researchers and historians are encouraged to send additional titles to me at the address below. Corrections as well as additions are welcome.

Included in this bibliography are 160 sources for DeKalb County. The reader can look up these sources by author (Part I), by type of record such as census or family history (Part II) or by title (Part III).

Those using this bibliography will notice a few departures from the normal standard form in bibliographic citation. This list was compiled with the use of a data base program and personal computer--a few limitations were encountered in printing out the information that hopefully will be overcome with more experience in a later edition.

For example, in the listing of sources by title (Part III) the user will notice that the computer did not ignore quotation marks, numbers, or words such as "A" or "The" as one would find in the traditional bibliography.

"Extension Course Reports" refers to a soft-bound volume of reports by those enrolled in a 1923 extension course. This was all the information given on the title page.
